

Presidential recognition of March as Women's History Month at Wayne State University

WHEREAS the United States Congress has designated the month of March as Women's History Month, and Wayne State University joins in proudly recognizing the achievements and contributions of women throughout our country's history and within our own campus community; and

WHEREAS a congressional resolution proclaiming Women's History Month was first passed in 1987, and Governor Gretchen Whitmer issued a proclamation declaring March as Women's History Month in Michigan on March 1, 2025; and

WHEREAS the theme for Women's History Month 2025 is "Moving Forward Together! Women Educating & Inspiring Generations," celebrating the collective impact of women who have dedicated their lives to education, leadership and mentorship; and

WHEREAS women have played a vital role in shaping American society, making significant contributions in governance, science, business, education, the arts and more, strengthening our nation and improving the world for future generations; and

WHEREAS Wayne State University, located in the heart of Detroit, celebrates the many and ongoing contributions of its female students, faculty, staff and alumni and reaffirms its dedication to serving our community to build and sustain a prosperous future.

NOW, THEREFORE, on behalf of Wayne State University, I, Dr. Kimberly Andrews Espy, president, do hereby proclaim the month of March as Women's History Month at Wayne State University, and I encourage the entire campus community to join proudly in this celebration.
